

A small group of people organises social and fundraising events for our church or for our nominated charity of the year. Usually the events centre on food and enjoying meals together.

Look out for posters and fliers advertising forthcoming events.